Dear Sir/Madam,

“Youth-led implementation of SDG Solutions Project”

UNFPA requires the provision of a youth-led implementation of the SDG Solutions Project as described in the attached Terms of References. This Request for Quotation is open to all legally-constituted companies that can provide the requested services and have legal capacity to deliver in the country, or through an authorized representative.

I. About UNFPA

UNFPA, the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), is an international development agency that works to deliver a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every child birth is safe and every young person’s potential is fulfilled.

UNFPA is the lead UN agency that expands the possibilities for women and young people to lead healthy sexual and reproductive lives. To read more about UNFPA, please go to: UNFPA about us

II – Service Requirements/Terms of Reference (ToR)

Objectives and scope of the Services

Background

Cambodia’s population is the youngest in Southeast Asia and constitutes the largest generation of youth transitioning into adulthood in its history. Ensuring young people have good health, quality education and decent employment, and are empowered to make informed decisions in life, whether within their families or in the social, economic and political arenas, are pre-conditions to and accelerators of sustainable development. The role of young people will be decisive for Cambodia’s future through ensuring it reaps a demographic dividend to enable continued growth in a sustainable way. Yet, Cambodia’s strong economic growth has so far not been matched by improvements in youth well-being and participation.

Rationale

Recognizing the vital role of young people in delivering on the SDGs in Cambodia, the UN has identified the empowerment, development and engagement of young people as one of the four accelerators. This accelerator is closely linked to the five UNDAF Outcomes and the Accelerators 1, 2 and 4. Youth is also prioritized in the Rectangular Strategy-Phase IV as part of the priority on “Human Resource Development”. With the UN focusing on the two broad areas of youth well-being and economic growth, as well as youth responsive systems and youth participation, this allows for the creation of youth-led solutions and approaches, ultimately empowering youth to realize their full potential and to meaningfully contribute to the sustainable development of Cambodia.

The aim of the UN Youth Accelerator is to increase the speed of attaining the UNDAF outcomes 1-5 and to boost the interactions across the CSDGs and UNDAF outcomes. Healthy, educated and empowered youth will lead to progress in all of the CSDGs, including gender equality, health, education, employment and civic participation. Investing in youth is also in line with the National Policy on Youth Development (NPYD), which focuses on the four areas of Health, Education, Employment and Participation. To accelerate the process to reach the SDGs and to put youth in the drivers' seat, the "SDG Solutions" project will be launched in October 2019.

By launching a call for SDG solutions in Cambodia, we call for youth-led projects that aim to solve the world's toughest issues. Among all the submissions, 5 youth teams will be selected to be part of a competition to seek support for their proposed solutions to one (or more) of the SDGs and be selected to present their ideas to the UN Country Team. Following this year's High-Level Political Forum theme of "empowering people and ensuring inclusiveness and equality", the teams will be asked to focus on solutions to the challenges related to the SDGs 4 (Quality education), 8 (Decent work and economic growth), 10 (Reduced inequalities), 13 (Climate action), 16 (Peace, justice and strong institutions) and 17 (Partnerships for the goals). An advisory panel will then select the winning teams (3) to implement their youth-led solution. The three winners will get awards¹ and they start to implement their solution cases.

To further build the capacities of young people and allow for their leadership in the kick-off and implementation of the Youth Accelerator, UNFPA is seeking a qualified youth organization that will take over the tasks of youth engagement, awareness raising and event management.

21.2 The Parties further acknowledge and agree that, for these purposes, a cause of action shall accrue when the breach actually occurs, or, in the case of latent defects, when the injured Party knew or should have known all of the essential elements of the cause of action, or in the case of a breach of warranty, when tender of delivery is made, except that, if a warranty extends to future performance of the goods or any process or system and the discovery of the breach consequently must await the time when such goods or other process or system is ready to perform in accordance with the requirements of the Contract, the cause of action accrues when such time of future performance actually begins.

22. ESSENTIAL TERMS: The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that each of the provisions in Articles 23 to 28 hereof constitutes an essential term of the Contract and that any breach of any of these provisions shall entitle UNFPA to terminate the Contract or any other contract with UNFPA immediately upon notice to the Contractor, without any liability for termination charges or any other liability of any kind.

23. SOURCE OF INSTRUCTIONS: The Contractor shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to UNFPA in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Contract. Should any authority external to UNFPA seek to impose any instructions concerning or restrictions on the Contractor's performance under the Contract, the Contractor shall promptly notify UNFPA and provide all reasonable assistance required by UNFPA. The Contractor shall not take any action in respect of the performance of its obligations under the Contract that may adversely affect the interests of UNFPA, and the Contractor shall perform its obligations under the Contract with the fullest regard to the interests of the United Nations and UNFPA.
